St. Teresa of Avila

St. Teresa was born in Avila in Spain. As a child, she had great desire to die a martyr. At the age of 18 she entered the Carmel Convent of the Incarnation at Avila. After overcoming great difficulties, she effected the reform of her own convent, and later, assisted by St. John of the Cross, undertook the reform of the whole Order, with great success.

Out of love of God, St. Teresa made a vow always to do what seemed most perfect, most pleasing to Him. Her prayer brought her to the highest degree of mystical life and so enlightened her mind with regard to divine things.

...She wrote: "When enraptured how conscious the soul becomes of being imprisoned into slavery in a foreign land." Again, "the best prayer that is most pleasing to God, is that which produces the best results in good works, not that which we enjoy with no other effects but our own satisfaction."

The influence of this humble nun in the conversion of thousands of souls is a signal proof of the high value of the contemplative life. She died on October 4, 1582.
