Prayer on the Feast of the Purification of Mary

O Holy Mother of God, and my Mother Mary, you were so deeply interested in my salvation as to offer to death the dearest object of thy heart, your beloved Jesus! Since then, you did so much desire to see me saved, it is right that, after God I should place all my hopes in you. O yes, most Blessed Virgin, I do indeed entirely confide in you.

By the merit of the great sacrifice which you offered this day to God, the sacrifice of the life of your Son, entreat Him to have pity on my poor soul, for which this Immaculate Lamb did not refuse to die on the Cross. I could desire, O my Queen, to offer my poor heart to God on this day in imitation of thee; but I fear that seeing it so sordid and loathsome, He might refuse it. But if you offer it to Him, He will not reject it.

He is always pleased with and accepts the offerings presented to Him by your most pure hands. To thee, then, O Mary do I this day present myself, miserable as I am; to you do I give myself without reserve. Offer me as your servant, together with Jesus to the eternal Father; and beseech Him, by the merits of your Son and for your sake, to accept me and take me for His own.

My Sweetest Mother, for the love of your sacrificed Son, help me always and at all times, and abandon me not. Never permit me to lose, by my sins, this most amiable Redeemer, Who on this day you offered with so bitter grief to the cruel death of the Cross.

Remind Him that I am your servant, that in you I have placed all my hopes; that thou wilt my salvation, and He will certainly graciously hear you.
