Our Lady of Sorrows

How many holy souls, in the course of ages, have come to keep faithful company with the Mother of sorrows! Their intercession united with Mary's is a strength to the Church; and we hope to obtain thereby the effect of the merits of our Savior's death. So great, it is said, was Mary's grief on Calvary, that, had it been divided among all creatures capable of suffering, it would have caused them all to die instantly.

It was our Lady's wonderful peace, maintained by perfect acquiescence and total abandonment of her whole being to God, that alone was able to sustain in her the life which the Holy Ghost was preserving for the Church's sake. May our participation in the sacred mysteries give us that peace of God which surpasses all understanding, and which keeps our minds and hearts in Christ Jesus.

To what shall I compare thee? or to what shall I liken thee, O daughter of Jerusalem? to what shall I equal thee, that I may comfort thee O Virgin daughter of Sion? for great as the sea is thy destruction. (Lam. 1. 12)
