Holy Abandonment

God created me to do him some definite service; He has committed some work to me which He has not committed to another. I have my mission— I may never know it in this life, but I shall be told it in the next.

I shall do good, I shall do His work— if I do but keep His commandments and serve Him in my calling. Therefore, I will trust Him. Whatever, wherever I am, I can never be thrown away. If I am in sickness my sickness may serve Him, in perplexity, my perplexity may serve Him; if I am in sorrow, my sorrow may serve Him.

My sickness or perplexity, or sorrow may be necessary causes of some great end, which is quite beyond us. He does nothing in vain. He may prolong my life, He may shorten it; He knows what He is about. He may take away my friends; He may throw me among strangers; He may make me feel desolate, make my spirits sink, hide the future from me—still He knows what He is about.

O, my God I put myself without reserve into Thy Hands. Wealth or woe, joy or sorrow, friends or bereavement, honor or humiliation; good report or ill report; comfort or discomfort; Thy presence or hiding of Thy countenance, all is good if it comes from Thee. Thou art wisdom and Thou art Love—What can I desire more?

Thou hast led me in Thy counsel, and with glory Thou hast received me. What have I in Heaven, and apart from Thee, what want I upon earth. My flesh and my heart fails; but God is the God of my heart, and my portion forever.

Cardinal John Henry Newman
